Galvanizing & Organizing Youth Activism at Rutgers University

ANNUAL "Walk for Literacy"

Dear Friend,

THANK YOU for participating in the annual GOYA (Student Volunteerism at Rutgers) "Walk for Literacy" held in conjunction with the Global Literacy Project, Inc. This year's event, on Saturday, October 20th, 2007, in New Brunswick, New Jersey, continues to focus on GOYA's vision to assist communities locally, nationally, and globally. Locally: We are supporting the daycare classrooms of the Puerto Rican Action Board in New Brunswick. Globally: We are supporting the rebuilding of a community learning center serving children and elders in Peru and Global Literacy Project's Africa programs for kindergarten children—especially the support of kindergarten children in the slums of Kibera, the largest slum in East Africa.

Please reach out and lend any assistance you can for these worthy causes. Individuals can consider a donation by signing up below. Checks or money orders can be made out to: The GOYA Project. Our event schedule runs from 10:15 am to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 20th, 2007. We begin with registration at the Douglass Student Center, New Brunswick. At 11:15 a.m. we kick-off with speeches and then begin to walk along George Street. The walk ends at Brower Commons, College Avenue Campus with a rally and cold refreshments.

Please join us as together we can eradicate illiteracy worldwide! Thank You! (GOYA: Galvanizing and Organizing Youth Activism)
