ANNUAL
"Walk for Literacy"

Dear Friend,

THANK YOU for participating in the annual GOYA (Student Volunteerism at Rutgers) "Walk for Literacy." This year's event, on Saturday, October 17th, 2009, in New Brunswick, New Jersey, continues to focus on GOYA's vision to assist communities from the local to the global level. Locally: We plan to provide books and other literacy materials for English Language Learners participating in a "Take Reading Home" pilot in nursery and kindergarten classrooms throughout New Brunswick. We also want to help supply new books as well as other literacy materials to schools in Roselle and Trenton New Jersey. Globally: We are also supporting several significant Global Literacy Project programs for kindergarten children in Africa (Kenya and South Africa) and the Caribbean.

Please reach out and lend any assistance you can for these worthy causes. Individuals can consider a donation by signing up below. Checks or money orders can be made out to "The Global Literacy Project" in order to receive a receipt for tax purposes. Our event schedule runs from 10:15 am to 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, October 17th, 2009. We begin with registration in front of the Cook/Douglass Coop bookstore (across from the Douglass Student Center—Nichol Avenue side). At 11:15 a.m. we kick-off with speeches and then begin to walk along George Street. The walk ends at Brower Commons, College Avenue Campus with a rally and cold refreshments.

Please join us as together we can eradicate illiteracy worldwide! Thank You! (GOYA: Galvanizing and Organizing Youth Activism)
